

2019 Traditional Midsummer Celebration

At "Gammelgården", in Särna,

Norra Dalarna - North Dalecarlia, Sweden

Midsummer Eve – Friday June 21st

Approx. 1 pm Procession of the summer green decorated horse carriage goes through the village playing authentic folklore music

Approx. 3 pm Entertainment at Gammelgården
"Särna Dragspelsklubb" – local accordion music
Entertainment on stage
Lottery Drawing
Procession of the flags in local authentic folklore costumes will bring the entourage of "the tail" which is beautifully wrapped in midsummer flowers.

The midsummer pole is raised with everyone's help and all the children will dance and sing around this country's well-known benchmark; the ultimate proof of the triumph of summertime!

Music of the area's fiddlers - "Särna Spelmän & Engerdals spelmanslag"

Admission is 50 kr. per person

Less than 12 years old or dressed in folklore costume FREE!

Refreshments & raffles for sale –

Local dishes as "Kolbotten" over open fire –

The "Fishing Pond" diversion & horse riding for children.

The night before, on Thursday 20th,

YOU are welcome to join us at 6 pm,

at The Red Barn down by the Lake, for wreath binding of the flower trail and its circles.

Welcome

Arr. Särna Byaråd